Sales Tax Is Likely If More Cuts Made

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON — Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) said today that if the Democrats are successful in persuading Congress to cut income taxes again this year, the revenue loss will have to be made up by a general sales tax.

He made this comment in advance of the start of public hearings by the Senate Finance Committee on an administration-backed 875-page tax revision bill, already passed by the house. Flanders serves on the committee. Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey was called as the first witness on the measure, which he has termed the most vital legislation before Congress this session. The bill makes assorted tax cuts totaling $1,400,000,000 for individuals and businesses in its first year of operation but it does not reduce a personal income levies, which dropped an average of 10 per cent on Jan. 1.

The major fight promises to be on a Democratic move to slash income taxes by increasing exemptions of each taxpayer and dependent.

Flanders said in the interview that if this reduction is voted, the revenue loss will have to be made up since the budget for next year already is in the red by about four billion dollars.

"The only practical way this could be done is by a general sales tax," he said.

And he asserted such a levy would take away the added purchasing power which Democrats say would come by boosting exemptions.

However, he also made clear that Republicans on the Finance Committee are not backing the revision bill 100 per cent. He said he has doubts on a section cutting taxes on income from dividends.

"I am not satisfied this is the right way to do it," he said. "But I am willing to listen to the arguments and to be convinced if they are convincing."

Motorists Tie, Rob Two Hitchhikers

MONTICELLO — A parolee and his companion were jailed here yesterday after two hitchhikers told officers they had been robbed stripped and tied to trees by a pair of motorists.

Sheriff Jack Towler said Roy R. Sexton, 24, of Vanduser, Mo., and John K. Raymond, 20, of Grand Rapids, Mich., were arrested when they attempted to flee down a dead-end street. They will be charged with armed robbery, he said.

Sexton, recently paroled from an Arkansas prison, and Raymond picked up 75-year-old J. C. Adams of Cullendale as he walked along a highway near Crossett, the sheriff said.

The elderly pedestrian was robbed of $25 and his luggage, then gagged and bound to a tree with his necktie.

Towler said 19-year-old James T. Edds of near Hot Springs was picked up about an hour later by two men who stripped him, tied, gagged and bound him to a tree. He was robbed of 90 cents, a watch and clothing.

The two men worked loose from their bonds and notified the sheriff, who alerted state Troopers Henry Tong and Jack Stone. The troopers arrested Sexton and Raymond.

Possessions of the hitchhikers were recovered, Towler said.

DeQueen Coach to Malvern

MALVERN (U) — Ben F. Burton yesterday was named head athletic coach at Malvern High School, succeeding Elmer Phillips, who resigned to become McGraw superintendent of schools.

Burton, a former Southern State and Arkansas State Teachers College line star, has been head coach of DeQueen for the past two years.

accumulated over the years. "You'd be surprised how that perked them up. Just getting a look at something that baffled the boss put over the idea, better than words, that in this business your blunders are the stepping stones to success.

"But too often mistakes are scaled up in a box. That's what I wanted to get away from. It's a damn nuisance to dig mistakes out of a box. It's a lot easier to have them out on a shelf where they can haunt you and stimulate you."

Soon there were a hundred new fizzes on the shelf. The number kept growing, but each time Garner told h is staff patiently:

"Put your fizzle on the shelf. Then we'll all sit down together and look at it. We'll try to figure out some way we can turn it from a failure to success."

Some visiting engineers shook their heads on seeing the crowded fizzle shelf. They felt almost as unprofessional as if a doctor, for example, should hang photographs of dead former patients in his waiting room.

"Their criticism — some of it vocal — didn't dismay Garner. He still has his fizzle shelf, and confidently expects to add to it. It is a guarantee against making the same mistake twice.

"I was taught not to be ashamed of failing," he said. "There is no reason for either shame or humiliation if things don't turn out as you expect."

"Even in simple experiments I'd say we get what we hope for only about 15 per cent of the time. But we wouldn't have the 15 per cent except for the experiments that are 85 per cent unsuccessful."

"That's why I say failure is our best teacher. If a man doesn't keep a museum of his failures — at least in his own mind — he's hiding from things that could help him most."

Garner, who is 50, is still a bachelor.

factorially" fill our loyalty questionnaires or whose questionnaires disclose "significant derogatory information" will be accepted into the service and retained on non-sensitive assignments in the lowest enlisted pay grade permitted by law, pending completion of a thorough investigation."

The order continues: "In the event this investigation reveals that further retention would be inconsistent with the interests of national security he (the inductee) will be separated under other than honorable conditions. Should the investigation disclose insufficient derogatory information to warrant separation in the interest of national security, he will be continued in the service and thereafter appropriately assigned."

The character of his ultimate discharge to be determined by his subsequent conduct.

clor. "That's my biggest fizzle of all," he said, smiling wryly. "And how to turn that mistake into a profit baffles me. I love children dearly."

Do CRAMPS give you that monthly look?

Why let tell-tale misery, "nerves" show in your eyes? Does your mirror show an older-looking, worn-out, nervous face during your "bad days"? Why let men see that you are suffering from monthly cramps? Try a little Cardui each day as thousands of women do. Let it help build strength and resistance so you have less and less misery each month. Some go through periods without feeling any discomfort at all. Also helps relax jittery nerves—sleep better. Look, feel, act younger, more normal all month. Ask for Cardui. (Say: "card-ewee").

Fake Professor caught at UA

FAYETTEVILLE (U) — A University of New Hampshire physicist, fired when it was discovered he was using an assumed name and college degree, once taught at the University of Arkansas.

University officials said yesterday that Marvin Hewitt taught in the College of Engineering here from September, 1950 to May, 1951. He was fired when a letter of recommendation he submitted proved to be false.

New Hampshire dismissed Hewitt.

School Hearing Postponed

LITTLE ROCK — Atty. Harold E. Flowers yesterday won a postponement on a Pulaski County

School hearing of his petition seeking equalization of Negro and white elementary schools at Sweet Home. School Supt. E. F. Dunn said the Pine Bluff attorney asked that the hearing, scheduled for yesterday, be postponed "because of other pressing business. Dunn said the petition probably would be heard May 4.

Sweet Home school is not equal to the other schools in the district. Sound can be heard in the invisible infant school.

The new 200-horsepower Buick Century Convertible—gleek, smart, self-led—and available in gorgeous new colors.

We have a line the gals go for
(Have you seen our Spring Fashion Show?)

You can't fool the ladies when it comes to styling. From clothes and hemlines, to cars and color schemes—they insist on a fresh new look and a fresh new change—and anything else won't do. So it's easy to see why the gals—bless 'em!—have been going for Buick in a great big way—going for the glamorous modernity of these new-day automobiles ever since the first public showing a few short months ago. From the beginning, they've been going for the sleeker, longer, lower lines—the futuristic shaping of the new windshields—the stunning décor of the striking new fabrics—the clean simplicity of the new instrument panels.

But you ought to see how they go for the gay new car models in Buick's Spring Fashion Show! Fresh new Convertibles, Rivieras and Estate Wagons never before available—and in gorgeous new summer colors never shown before! And you ought to see how they go—as the men certainly do—for the thrilling new V8 power, the buoyant new ride, the superb new control, and the almost effortless handling ease that are a part and parcel of every new 1954 Buick. Why not visit our Spring Fashion Show and see for yourself the fresh new tomorrow that's here now—in today's Buick? Then we can show you the prices that make this beauty the buy of the year.

Ho Dedicated to Reds, Free Indochina

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Over 35 years ago an Indochinese named Ho Chi Minh made his way to Paris as a servant on a French boat and got a job as a photo-retoucher.

Indochina was strictly a French colony then. And in 1919 Ho Chi Minh joined the French Communist party. He has been a Communist ever since. He is a man who can be said to have lived a dedicated life.

His was a double dedication: communism and independence for Indochina. Now he is leading the Vietnamese in their fight against the French in Indochina. His followers are not all Communists by any means. Many are Indochinese nationalists who also insist upon independence for their country.

Ho Chi Minh is described now as a man of about 62, thin-faced, with a wisp of beard and a hoarse voice resulting from tuberculosis. He is a man the United States must think of in trying to keep Indochina from communism.

If the French, sick of the war, seek a negotiated peace with him and then clear out of Indochina it is hard to believe this dedicated man won't try to take over the whole country.

Ho Chi Minh — the name means "The One Who Shines" — went from Paris to Moscow and studied revolutionary techniques. In the mid-1920s he went back to Asia and in 1930 formed the Indochinese Communist party.

In 1940, in southern China, he founded the Vietnamese League for the Independence of Viet Nam. Indochina, slightly larger than Texas, is made up of three associated states: Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam.

The Vietnamese had nationalist backing. In 1944, with aid from the Americans who were fighting the Japanese — the latter held Indochina then — Ho Chi Minh went back into his homeland with several hundred Vietnamese partisans. He cooperated with the 14th Air Force's pilot-rescue teams and made several raids against the Japanese. In return, American intelligence officers helped him. Arms were parachuted to him.

When the Japanese surrendered, Ho Chi Minh entered Hanoi triumphantly and on Sept. 2, 1945, proclaimed his "Democratic Republic of Viet Nam." On March 8, 1946, France recognized Viet Nam as a republic under Ho Chi Minh.

He negotiated with the French for independence. The French reluctant to give what had been theirs for 90 years, demanded that Viet Nam be a republic under French control.

Russell Brines, an AP reporter who visited Indochina last year with Vice President Nixon, quoted French officers as saying they can count on only 10 percent of the population to support them.

But only a fraction of the population is really Communist. Most are just anti-French.

About eight million of Viet Nam's 25 million live in areas controlled by Ho Chi Minh.

Sprains Ankle, Fight Delayed

WASHINGTON — Light-heavyweight Champion Archie Moore of St. Louis turned with an ankle sprain yesterday and his fight with Jimmy Slade, scheduled to be nationally televised next week, was ordered postponed.

Instead the regular Wednesday night boxing show will feature Jake LaMotta, former middleweight titleholder, and Billy Kilgore of Miami in a 10-rounder at Miami.

Dodgers Jump on Senators at Washington

By BEN PHLEGAR

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Brooklyn Dodgers walloped the Washington Senators 10-4 last night at Griffith Stadium in the season's first major league game in a major league park. It was far from a major-league-caliber baseball.

Both clubs trotted out their best pitchers — Don Newcombe for the Dodgers and Bob Porterfield for the Senators. Newcombe walked three in a row, forcing in a run gave up seven hits and hit one batter in the six innings he worked. Porterfield also lasted six. The Dodgers got nine of their runs and seven of their hits off him and he walked seven and balked twice.

The Senators made four errors, two of them on a single play in the third inning when Sandy Amoros went all the way around on a little infield grounder. Mickey Vernon threw the ball away first and then Ed Fitzgerald threw it away again.

The two clubs meet again tonight in Washington.

The pitching was considerably better in several of the other exhibitions yesterday. The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Chicago White Sox 2-1. The Chicago Cubs edged Baltimore 2-0 and the New York Yankees snipped Cleveland 2-1.

In other games Detroit beat the Philadelphia Phils 7-5. The New York Yankees defeated Norfolk, Va., 4-1. Pittsburgh shaded the Philadelphia Athletics 6-5 and the Boston Red Sox made it two straight over Milwaukee 7-2.

Two pitchers worked complete games. Whitey Ford became the first Yankee to go nine innings as he set down Norfolk on five hits. Duane Pillette of the Orioles allowed the Cubs only six hits but got beaten.

Hal Jeffcoat shifted from the Cubs' outfield to the pitching mound and blanked Baltimore on two hits through the last five innings. Jeffcoat's only other pitching experience was in Class B ball with Shelby, N. C., in 1946.

Harvey Haddix hurled seven shutout innings for the Cardinals against the White Sox as Stan Musial and Bill Sarni drove in the two St. Louis runs. Bob Keegan was the loser. The game in Little Rock drew 10,474, largest ever to watch a game in the Arkansas capital.

Johnny Antonelli tried to go the distance for the Giants but needed help from reliable Hoyt Wilhelm in the ninth when the first two batters singled. Cleveland's only run came when Jim Hegan singled with two out in the ninth. Hal Newhouser went the first five innings for the Indians and probably clinched a job. The former Detroit star has been working without a contract while trying a comeback.

Philadelphia's Curt Simmons was pounded for 12 hits in seven innings by the Tigers but Steve Ridzik drew the losing runs in the eighth. Del Ennis hit two against the French in open war.

It was only guerrilla war. It became a good-sized war later when the Reds took over China and could pump supplies to him.

Now, with the help of the Chinese, Ho Chi Minh has the French in precarious position.

This country doesn't want the French to quit, saying a victory for Ho Chi Minh would be the first move in making all Southeast Asia Communist.

Since 1950 this country has given the French in Indochina over 500 million dollars a year in military help. This year it steps up to more than one billion dollars. And the United States may get in even deeper.

What's the matter with the Vietnamese people in general? Why don't they rush to the aid of the French to overwhelm Ho Chi Minh? For one thing there is strong nationalism in Indochina, particularly in Viet Nam, which has about 22 million of the country's 26 million people. The remainder are in Laos and Cambodia.

France has granted none of them full independence, although she is moving in that direction.

Reports from Associated Press correspondents in Indochina since last summer say that probably half of the 12 million Vietnamese living in the zone controlled by Bao Dai (who is backed by the French as head of the Viet Nam government) are directly aiding the Vietnamese or indirectly supporting them. But only a fraction of the population is really Communist.

Most are just anti-French. About eight million of Viet Nam's 25 million live in areas controlled by Ho Chi Minh.

Russell Brines, an AP reporter who visited Indochina last year with Vice President Nixon, quoted French officers as saying they can count on only 10 percent of the population to support them.

A&P Makes Youngsters Feel Big

Shopping is a big job for youngsters. And most of them take it pretty seriously. They want to be treated just like grownups... and that's the way they are treated at A&P.

When your youngsters shop at A&P they are in good hands. Helping hands, too. For all A&P employees are instructed to give special attention to the special needs of children. All of which helps to make junior's job and mother's mind — easier!
